Are You Interested in Civic Engagement?

Do You Want to Make a Difference on Cornell’s Campus?

The Andrew Goodman Foundation wants your help!

The Andrew Goodman Foundation works to make young voices and votes a powerful force in democracy. The foundation partnered with Cornell to cultivate civic leaders, remove voting barriers, and mobilize student voters to take action on issues that will affect students’ futures. Join the Cornell Campus team to promote civic engagement across campus!

As an Andrew Goodman Ambassador, you will:

- Support voter registration and get out the vote efforts on Cornell’s campus
- Work in collaboration with other ambassadors and volunteers to bring awareness and promote civic actions
- Ensure voter registration, voter education and get out the vote (GOTV) efforts are a well-organized, visible and institutionalized part of campus life
- Organize, partner and mobilize like-minded students, clubs and organizations around voting and social issues
- Articulate the mission and vision of Vote Everywhere by connecting on-campus efforts to the history of the US Civil Rights Movement and the legacy of Goodman, Schwerner and Chaney

Qualifications:
- Minimum GPA of 3.0
- Be able to commit to at least 5 hours of work a week for a three-year term.
- Must be engaging, willing to actively cooperate with other campus organizations and students throughout their term, and demonstrate a passionate commitment to civic engagement through unique perspectives and ideas.

If interested, please send a resume and a cover letter to Amy Somchanhmavong at ayk3@cornell.edu by February 9th.
