

If you can answer yes to at least one of these questions, or aren't sure what the answers are, call the Cornell Police Special Projects Manager (255-7304) to begin to assess what level of Cornell Police participation (if any) is necessary for the safety of your invitee and the program attendees. Discover what needs to be done to minimize your liability in hosting such a prestigious event! Our recommendations are free, and are based on MANY years of experience in all types of events, large and small.